

Practical Nursing Program Entrance Criteria Selection Tool

Applicant

Name _____

—

Date of Application _____

—

Applicant Email _____ Phone

Number _____

Prerequisites (Must have transcript showing C or better in both Courses) Course Grade A = 20 points B = 15 points C = 10 points D, F, or W = 0 points BIO 106 grade ____ points ____ ENG 121 grade ____ points ____ (Higher level courses such as BIO 201 and 202 will be substituted using the same points system)	_____pts.
Associates Degree or Higher – 10 points If degree is Medical, Science, or Psychology related – Extra 10 points (Must submit transcript showing passing grades and degree conferred to get points)	_____pts.
Nursing related coursework Nutrition – example HWE 100 or HPR 108 – 10 points Human Growth and Development – example PSY 235 – 10 points Medical Terminology – example HPR 178 – 10 points College level Math – example MAT 103 - 10 points (Must submit transcript showing passing grade to receive points)	_____pts.
Work Experience in the Medical Field (Examples CNA, MA, Pharm tech, Phlebotomy) (Requires letter of verification from employer showing recent, sustained employment) 6 to 12 months of experience – 5 points 1 year to 3 years – 10 points 3years to 6 years – 15 points 6 years to 9 years – 20 points	_____pts.

9 years or more – 25 points
Reference Letters 3 Professional Reference Letters (1 must be from a Direct Supervisor or Teacher) – 20 points	_____pts.
ATI TEAS Test (Mandatory Test) Academic Preparedness Level Overall Proficient Score – 58.7 to 77.3 or better – 15 points (or) Content area score/s proficient (indicative of adequate preparation for program) - 10 points (TEAS test will be waived when student has a degree – 10 points will be given)	_____pts.
Grand Total	_____pts.*
Points:

*Lowest number of points an applicant will need to be considered for the program is 40. Highest points possible are 160. Students with highest scores will be offered available student placements. In the case of a tie, earliest application date will be used to determine offer. The total number of students Pickens Technical College PN Program is approved for by the Colorado State Board of Nursing is 52, or 26 per cohort.